Information for parents

We are continuing with our Stick Man story this week. Stick Man travels through the seasons in his story, what are seasons? How do you know? What changes do you notice? See if you can guess which season Mrs Foldvari is reading a story from today. This lovely book was gifted to us as a birthday book!

Fingers and thumbs	Make some clothes or accessories for your Stick Man or Lady, how about a dress, a hat or some shoes? What materials will you use to make them?
Art	Using your stick collection can you make a picture using your sticks? You could stick them on a piece of paper and scrunch up coloured paper to make a pretty tree picture like the family tree in the Stick Man story. Or you could let your imagination go wild and make something spectacular with your sticks. Show us your works of art on 2Simple! Writing	Today we are going to write all about our fantastic stick made we made last week. First of all, talk to someone about your stick man and describe what they are like using a full sentence. Hold the sentence in your head and repeat it again. Have a go a writing the sentence or the first sound of the words. Don't forget finger spaces, a capital letter and full stop at the end.
Reading Phonics Storytime	Use your Reading Eggs login to hatch eggs, unlock new sounds and have fun learning to read words. We can see your progress from home too so keep going, you've got the reading power! Book an appointment to read with a TA, use the time for a phonics session or listen to a TA read to you! Please use the booking system on the website. You will be able to book these appointments on a daily basis in within school hours.
